

BUENOS AIRES

The city of Buenos Aires, one of the most important Latin American cities, is a great cosmopolitan and many-sided metropolis. This city astonishes the tourist with its evident universal influence.

It is the capital of the Argentine Republic and the vital bond of the nation.

As long as European architecture is concerned, many streets recall those of Paris.

Its numberless museums, exposition and conference centers, art galleries, cinemas and theatres with national and international spectacles of high quality, are witnesses of its important cultural life.

The Colon Theatre, one of the most important lyrical theatres in the world, is seat, together with some other scenarios, of an intense musical activity that comprises all genres including, of course, the famous and typical Tango; besides, the city is frequently visited by orchestras, groups and soloists from all over the world.

Financial, stock-exchange and economical seat of the country, Buenos Aires is the main port of the nation.

It has an intense commercial activity, reflected in numberless shops of the main world famous branches, shop centers and commercial shopping.

Its nightlife is quite varied and extends up to the early hours. Discos, restaurants, cafeterias and many other attractions for all tastes are spread all around the city offering the tourist a large number of options.

Its accommodation capacity ranges from luxurious 5 stars hotels belonging to international chains up to modest lodgings, including all the economic levels.

CITY TOUR BUENOS AIRES

Find out the beauty and magic of Buenos Aires by visiting the National Congress and the Metropolitan Cathedral near the Government House in the Plaza de Mayo area. We will walk down the Tango streets in the traditional neighborhood of San Telmo, where this typical dance is alive. On our way to La Boca we will stop at the most colorful sector of the city, where years ago Italian immigrants settled up adopting this place as their home, and where, nowadays, important artists do the same. After this stroll, we will visit Palermo, residential neighborhood with parks and elegant buildings. Finally, the sophisticated Recoleta, one of the most exclusive neighborhoods where we shall visit, among other interesting places, the famous Recoleta Cemetery, eternal rest of many of our most prominent heroes and illustrious citizens; as synthesis of history and art, it is recognized within the most outstanding necropolis in the world
