ACI - DNA Assistance Programme “Economics for Small and Regional Airports” Guam, USA | 6-8 October 2013

---

Invitation presented to CEOs and Senior Staff of Developing Nations' Airports from Asia-Pacific, Members of ACI

Montreal, 27 May 2013

Dear Colleague,

The ACI-DNA Assistance Programme (ACI-DNA) is organizing its training seminar together with the United Nations Institute for Training and Research (UNITAR) and CIFAL Atlanta. The theme of this by-invitation only seminar is “Economics for Small and Regional Airports” and it will be held in the Territory of Guam, United States from 6-8 October 2013.

Lectures will be given in English and topics will include:

- Airport Industry and Economic Characteristics
- Ownership Models and Organizational Structures
- Economic Regulation
- Airport Cost structures

In order to ensure an effective and interactive training, the number of participants is limited to two persons per ACI member airport. Only the first 25 registrations received will be taken into consideration, on a first come, first served basis. Please complete and return the attached registration form via fax to +1 514 373-1201 and/or email to DNA@aci.aero by 6 September 2013.

The participation in the seminar is complimentary; the costs of accommodation (3 nights), and meals are met by ACI-DNA and CIFAL Atlanta from the evening of 5 October to noon 8 October. Participants are required to pay for their plane tickets to and from Guam, for their visa if necessary, as well as for other miscellaneous expenses.

With our best regards,

Angela Gittens
Director General, ACI World
